ACC Meeting Attendee:

On behalf of the American College of Cardiology, I invite you to participate in the American College of Cardiology's 56th Annual Scientific Session, to be held March 24-27, 2007 in New Orleans, Louisiana, U.S.A.

We will value your participation in discussions of the developments in cardiac therapy and disease prevention around the world. Please note that all expenses incident to your attendance, including travel and lodging, are your personal responsibility.

DECLARATION

The undersigned, Senior Director of the Annual Scientific Session and i2 Summit of the American College of Cardiology, declares that the 56th Annual Scientific Session to be held March 24-27, 2007 in New Orleans, Louisiana, U.S.A. has no retail or commercial purpose and is a not-for-profit professional education activity.

Sincerely,

Sue Sears Hamilton
Senior Director, Annual Scientific Session and i2 Summit

INNOVATION IN INTERVENTION
American College of Cardiology in co-sponsorship with SCAI

The mission of the American College of Cardiology is to advocate for quality cardiovascular care — through education, research promotion, development and application of standards and guidelines — and to influence health care policy.
